

COLONIES ARE READY FOR VILLA

Mormons to Resist Attack and 1000 Carranza Troops Are in District.

Junco military officials insist that there is very little chance that Francisco Villa will attempt to make his way into the Mormon country in the vicinity of Casas Grandes. Several reasons are advanced for this view by Gen. Gabriel Garcia, commander of the Mormon colony, one of the Mormon colonies of 500 is prepared in a measure to cope with an attack, and the other is that Col. R. Quevedo, who took a detachment of men from Juarez to Casas Grandes, several days ago, is said to be moving into the San Juanito country, where Villa's small command is operating, according to the last reports.

The pursuing army under the command of Quevedo is said to number 1000 men. General Garcia stated that his information was that General Barrios and Jose Carranza are in command of the forces which are operating with Madera and Minaca as bases.

EVERY SONORA CITIZEN IS TO BE LAND OWNER

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 14.—Every citizen of Sonora is to own his own plot of land, large or small, according to the idea of the Sonora agrarian commission, and the commission has appointed Miguel Ypez Solozano and Manuel Garcia, engineers, to make the necessary land surveys.

All the towns will be surveyed; property lines, now indefinite, will be fixed, and such lots as are available will be sold by the state to the people at low prices and on easy terms. It is presumed city and country property seized from exiles under the Calles regime will be handled in similar manner.

It's time to add to your library latest copyrighted novels only 60c. See our window. El Paso Book Co. Mills Bldg. "It's Handy."—Adv.

Texas Grand Theater

Lynn McClintock, Manager.

TONIGHT ONLY

Guarding Old Glory

The Good "Guarding Old Glory" Will Do.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Secretary of the Navy, says: "I trust thousands will see 'Guarding Old Glory'."

HUGH L. SCOTT, Major General, Chief of Staff, says: "You are doing a patriotic duty by showing 'Guarding Old Glory'."

Prices: 15c and 25c.

GEN. GARCIA REJECTS VILLAS STRIKE

Says False Rumors Responsible For Difficulties in Restoring Confidence.

Through the mediation of Andres Garcia, the Carranza consul has settled a strike which started Saturday in the Juarez townhouse, when 25 men employed in various work about the engine house decided to walk out because of a hitch in the payment of their monthly wages. The matter was brought to the attention of Mr. Garcia and, upon his recommendation the men were paid their wages in the de facto government papers.

"The superintendent was away," said Mr. Garcia, "and unfortunately no arrangement had been made to pay the men off. I learned of the situation and after a conference with the Juarez railroad engineer was decided to pay the railroad employees at once. This was done and in a matter of minutes the men were at their work."

"Nor is there any foundation in the rumor of a shortage of coal and the delay or hold up in its delivery on the National line. We meet and have been meeting the usual difficulties in securing all the fuel that we might need, but there is no strike or any other condition which prevents us from securing our supplies."

"Effort to Discredit Government." There seems to be a determined effort upon the part of certain individuals and groups antagonistic to the de facto government to discredit its normal economic condition. Money is only a tangible form of expressing confidence of a people in its government. Rumor after rumor is spread abroad augmenting and enlarging upon some trivial occurrence in which the de facto government currency has been repudiated or discredited. There would naturally be at the beginning, suspicion and distrust upon the part of a people who have been subjected to the irregular values represented during the last regime, and we would have our friends understand that in establishing a safe and economic condition in Mexico we have to take into consideration this very condition which prevails here.

"If the Americans and the American press will assist in restoring the needed confidence, it would hasten the return of prosperous trade conditions; but if emphasis is placed upon some trivial street brawling, some petty misunderstanding between a group of soldiers and a bread vendor, certainly that confidence which is essential to good government will be slow in its progress. We ask for patience and cooperation in all these matters."

LOOK TO OBREGON TO BRING ORDER IN NORTHERN STATES

The impression is gaining strength in Juarez and among border Mexicans that Gen. Alvaro Obregon will be sent north again to restore order in Durango and Chihuahua.

Various rumors have been spread along the border as to the movements of Gen. Obregon. It was reported in Juarez on Saturday that Obregon had left Juarez, while yesterday the opinion at the military headquarters in Juarez was that he is at Guadalupe, the capital of the state of Chihuahua, and within 125 miles of the City of Mexico. There is some inference that he is moving northward to Torreon and then upon him will rest the burden of bringing order into war-riven Durango and Chihuahua.

JUAREZ HOMES SEARCHED BY SOLDIERS FOR ARMS

A quiet and determined search is being made by the military in Juarez to discover arms and ammunition in the homes of the residents of that city. The action is taken as a precaution to prevent the fomenting of trouble or the breeding of additional revolutionary sentiments. A registration bureau, in the hands of soldiers delegated for that purpose, has been inaugurated at the municipal market place and after the names and address of the persons are secured they are questioned as to whether or not they have arms or ammunition in their possession.

TWO COLUMNS OF TROOPS ARE OPERATING AGAINST BAND IN THAT STATE.

Two decisive military advances upon insurgent Yaqui Indians in the Yaqui river country and the territory between Hermosillo and Guaymas by Carrancista troops under the command of M. Mendoza, chief of staff, indicate the opening of the territory through which the southern Pacific of Mexico passes and the early return to activity of the long line of railway connecting Nogales, Arizona, with Guadalajara.

There has been one of the problems of the Carranza government has undertaken and its success depends upon both the subjugation and conciliation of the Yaqui Indians.

The first message telling the local Carranza consul of an engagement in the Yaqui river country on February 10 was received Saturday night from Gen. M. Mendoza, chief of staff at Hermosillo. In the communication he stated that Gen. P. R. Serrano had advanced with a column of Carrancista troops on February 10 and engaged a band of Yaqui Indians in camp at Los Algodones, Sonora, compelling the Indians to retreat, abandoning arms and ammunition.

Second Column Active.

The second column under the command of Gen. Serrano occupied Tilacondote, an important strategic point, and the Carrancista forces are establishing telegraphic and telephone communications with Hermosillo.

A second message came at a later hour on Saturday and made known the fact that a column under the command of Col. Aguirre de la Hoz had reached Estacion Moron, a point half way between Hermosillo and Guaymas, and had dislodged a second body of Yaqui Indians, driving them toward the de la Paz mountains and pursuing them to the entrance of the Bacatete mountains.

To Restore Lands. While armed forces are attempting to restore order in the Yaqui country, a commission from the agrarian department is on its way from the City of Mexico to Sonora with views on restoring to the Yaquis those lands that were taken from them during the Diaz regime. "We feel," said Andres Garcia, the Carranza consul, "that if the Yaquis are brought to understand that we will do them justice and that it is our desire to restore to them the lands that were confiscated from them by the Diaz government, they will return to conditions of peace. The insurgents there grew out of the Villa reaction."

TWO TO BE PUBLICLY SHOT TO DEATH TUESDAY IN JUAREZ

The postponement of the execution of Manuel Rojas, fugitive under Gen. Gabriel Garcia, from Sonora, resulted in the apprehension. It is stated in Juarez, of Juan Aguilar as an accessory to the stealing of the ammunition and arms from the Juarez arsenal. Both Rojas and Aguilar will be publicly executed Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Juarez cemetery. It is reported that Rojas was implicated in the theft of the government supplies from their cases, so stated Gen. Garcia Tuesday, who has been investigating. "We propose to make examples of these men," continued the chief of the garrison, "and we do not expect a recurrence of such a theft or treachery."

"I have absolute proof that Rojas and Aguilar are guilty and the evidence was given by some of my best soldiers," said Gen. Garcia. "Aguilar was formerly a Villista soldier and joined my command at San Luis Potosi."

Both convicted men are accused with having stolen ammunition from the barracks of the Twenty-seventh battalion in the city of Juarez. It is on the American side of the river.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IS STARTED BY JUAREZ MAYOR

Though restricted in its funds for constructive work the city of Juarez has begun a campaign of cleaning up and rebuilding. Mayor M. Prieto stated Monday morning that work of rebuilding the market house at Juarez would begin at once and that the work of remodeling the municipal hospital had been completed.

"We propose," he said, "to do as much construction work in Juarez as possible and give employment to as many men as we possibly can. Our revenue is almost restricted to what comes in from the race track and unless the governor of Chihuahua rescinds his order as to the sale of liquor, other than malt, we shall be on a Puritanical basis for some time to come."

"Personally I have no views on the matter as the governor's wish is my command. I would like to see Juarez have some of the patronage of Americans as in the former days, and perhaps we can arrange to have musicals and festivals to at least bring a number of the tourists to the city. Our streets are being thoroughly cleaned and the city is being placed in order. I have no information that the Keno hall will be reopened."

NO FIGHT NEAR CHIHUAHUA. SAYS GEN. GABRIEL GARCIA

"No trains came into Juarez on Saturday from Chihuahua," said Gen. Gabriel Garcia Monday, "and therefore no traveler said to have arrived in Juarez could have been there. I fully expect an engagement had taken place between Carranza troops and a Villa band at Fresno, four or five miles north of Chihuahua."

"I wish to discredit such a story as an absurdity. Gen. Villa is, from all we can determine, nowhere near the capital of Chihuahua."

It was reported that a Carranza force had been sent to Fresno by the promise of a Villa band to surrender, and when the Carrancistas got there the Villistas opened fire.

AMERICANS GOING TO JUAREZ MAY HAVE TO BE VACCINATED

All persons entering Mexico from the American side have to be vaccinated, if a ruling of the health department of Juarez is enforced. "We have no natives upon this side," said Mayor Prieto of Juarez.

Gen. Garcia discussed vaccinations with a "real deal" of Mexicans. "We can indulge in a friendly reciprocity," he said. "Your health authorities have demanded that our people crossing the river be vaccinated. We, who have no smallpox, find that we had better invoke the same law on this side to protect us from a disease that we hear does exist in El Paso."

FALL OF OAXACA EXPECTED; AGUASCALIENTES SHOPS RESUME

A telegraphic communication to the Carranza consul Tuesday stated that the fall of the city of Oaxaca was expected momentarily.

World has been given out that the big railroad repair shops in Aguascalientes have been reopened and 25 engines a month are being put in working order, besides a large number of locomotives. Diodoro de la Garza has been named by the first chief as governor of the state of Nuevo Leon.

IMMENSE OBLIGATIONS IN DEFAULT OF THE CAUSE, SAY NEW YORK FINANCIERS.

Well informed financiers who have gone into Mexico with capital for development work profess to see no hope for the Carranza government so long as the United States maintains its present attitude of well wishing aloof.

Expressing a message from Villa to the Washington government. According to Villistas, Villa is calling all of his followers together for a united campaign, and is promising protection to those who come and other foreigners. Villa, it is said, proposes to show the American government that he has had nothing to do with the killing of Americans in Mexico and hopes to demonstrate that a mistake was made when the Washington government recognized Carranza.

According to some prominent bankers, who profess to know more about the situation across the border than officials of the state department, because, as they put it, the latter do not have to pay cash for their mistakes as the bankers do, it is only a question of weeks or months before Carranza goes the way of Madero and Huerta and Villa, that it is expected there will be another revolution, the destruction of more property and the temporary elevation of a new president. Expressing the view followed by the report emanating from Washington to the effect that a representative of the Carranza government has sounded New York bankers on the matter of lending funds to his party and had been refused.

No Available Money. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent from Carranza's staff came to New York with a view to sounding out possibilities of obtaining a loan from the bankers. He was not refused, but only because he did not ask; it was said by the men with whom he would have had to deal in Mexican matters. It was understood that an agent